SUBJECT: INTERNAL AFFAIRS – OFFICER JOEL GONZALEZ

In December 2006, retired FVPD Police Officer [REDACTED] told me his wife, [REDACTED] was working as a court reporter on a motion to suppress evidence hearing involving a Fountain Valley Police Officer. [REDACTED] said per his wife, she believed the Officer had lied on the stand. [REDACTED] was unsure of the name of the Officer as he had not been present. His wife said the Officer was Mexican and large framed. The testimony [REDACTED] referred to was similar to testimony I heard Officer Gonzalez had difficulty with in a November 2006 evidence suppression hearing.

In December 2006, I researched Officer Gonzalez' court appearances and noted he was subpoenaed regarding a 4/17/06 narcotics arrest involving Mark Sternisha. This arrest was documented under DR#06-1782.

Per this report, Officer Gonzalez contacted Sternisha on a vehicle stop after witnessing suspicious activity and a Vehicle Code violation. Officer Gonzalez requested permission to search Sternisha's vehicle. Sternisha did not give consent.

Officer Gonzalez wrote in his report, "I told Sternisha I was going to have a narcotics dog respond to my location to do an exterior search of the vehicle for contraband."

Officer Gonzalez then asked Sternisha if there was anything illegal in his vehicle, and Sternisha said he might have something in his vehicle. Officer Gonzalez searched the vehicle based on Sternisha's admission and located a scale, a glass pipe, methamphetamine and marijuana. He arrested Sternisha and booked him at Orange County Jail.

I noted Officer Gonzalez had tape-recorded his contact on Micro-Cassette Tape #6143. This tape was booked as evidence, and I obtained it from FVPD Property Clerk Linda Gottfried. I listened to the tape and heard Officer Gonzalez ask Sternisha for consent to search his vehicle. Sternisha denied consent.

Officer Gonzalez then stated, "I can do it the hard way. I can get a dog out here. We can tear the shit out of your upholstery cause I know you've had it in here before."

Sternisha then admitted there was contraband in his vehicle. Officer Gonzalez had Sternisha exit his vehicle and searched the vehicle.

In January 2007, I attempted to obtain a copy of the transcripts from court via Jim Manton. These transcripts were misplaced prior to being delivered to me. In late January or early February, I called Kim Manton who made a duplicate copy of the transcripts. These transcripts were delivered to me by a Fountain Valley Police Aide.

I read the transcripts and noted Officer Gonzalez testified on 11-1-06 at West Court. Present were Judge Michael Beecher, Deputy District Attorney Joseph Dane and Defense Attorney David Scharf.

Per the transcripts, Officer Gonzalez was asked by DDA Dane on direct examination about the events of the contact with Sternisha. Officer Gonzalez advised he had asked for permission to search Sternisha's vehicle, and Sternisha did not give permission. The following is an excerpt of DDA Dane's direct examination of Ofc. Gonzalez. This excerpt can be located on pages 25 and 26 of the court transcript.

DDA Dane: What happened next?

Officer Gonzalez: I advised him that I was going to have a narcotics dog respond and do an exterior search of the vehicle; and based on his objective symptoms, I believed he was under the influence of a controlled substance and I believed he might have had narcotics in the car.

Defense Attorney Scharf conducted cross examination of Officer Gonzalez. The following are excerpts from the cross examination on pages 42 thru 43 of the court transcript.

"Defense Attorney Scharf: Do you have an independent recollection of what occurred?

Officer Gonzalez: Yes.

The Court: He has some problem or we wouldn't be looking things up, but he has a general recollection.

Defense Attorney Scharf: For example, do you recall making the specific threat to Mr. Sternisha to obtain his consent that you could call the dogs in and they could tear the shit out of his upholstery and you could search that way?

DDA Dane: Objection. Facts not in evidence.

The Court: The question is, is that the way that it was put to the defendant. If that's the question, overruled.

Officer Gonzalez: I don't recall what I said.

Defense Attorney Scharf: Oh, I thought you wrote a police report; correct?

Officer Gonzalez: Yes.

Defense Attorney Scharf: Did you tell the truth in that?

Officer Gonzalez: Yes.

Defense Attorney Scharf: Well, didn't you put in your police report that what you said to him was, you can call the dogs and they could search the exterior of the vehicle, is that what you put in there?

Officer Gonzalez: Yes.

Defense Attorney Scharf: Is that what you told him?

Officer Gonzalez: I don't recall exactly what I told him."

Defense Attorney Scharf later submitted as evidence a copy of Ofc. Gonzalez micro-cassette tape from his contact with Sternisha and transcripts of that tape recorded contact. The audio tape was played in court and Defense Attorney Scharf then questioned Ofc. Gonzalez regarding the contact with Sternisha.

The issue with this incident is Officer Gonzalez wrote and testified that he told Sternisha he was going to have a dog search the exterior of the vehicle; however, on his tape, he stated to Sternisha he could get a dog and the dog would tear the shit out of the upholstery, which would be an interior search.

Re: People v. Michael Fadgen – 07WM00495

Dear Mr. Baylis:

In compliance with our discovery obligations, we are providing the following:

In People v. Mark Alan Sternisha (06WF1057) the defendant faced charges of H&S §§ 11378, 11379, 11364, and 11357(b).

On November 1, 2006, the defendant was present in court with his counsel, David Scharf, for a preliminary hearing and suppression motion. Officer Joel Gonzalez, Badge #241, from the Fountain Valley Police Department, was called as the first witness for the prosecution.

During his testimony on direct examination, Officer Gonzalez testified that he made a vehicle stop on the defendant's car on 4/17/06. He further testified that during his contact with the defendant, he asked for consent to search the car and the defendant denied his request. He testified that after the denial, he advised the defendant that he was "going to have a narcotics dog respond and do an exterior search of the vehicle...."

Under cross examination, Mr. Scharf asked Officer Gonzalez if he recalled "making the specific threat to Mr. Sternisha to obtain his consent that you could call the dogs in and they could tear the shit out of his upholstery and you could search that way?" Officer Gonzalez responded by indicating that he did not recall what he said. Thereafter, Mr. Scharf requested and was granted permission to play an audio tape of the contact. The audio tape was from a recording made by Officer Gonzalez during the contact and had been obtained by Mr. Scharf from the District Attorney's Office through the normal discovery process. After more questioning, Officer Gonzales was asked by Mr. Scharf whether there was anything different about the tape than what actually occurred in the conversation that night, to which Officer Gonzalez answered, "Whatever was said in the tape, that's what I said."

In his police report (Fountain Valley Police Department DR #06-1782), Officer Gonzalez had written that after the defendant denied consent to search his car, he then told the defendant that he was going to have a narcotics dog respond to his location to do an exterior search of the vehicle for contraband. The following is a verbatim excerpt from Officer Gonzalez's report:

"I asked Sternisha if he had anything illegal in his vehicle, and he said, 'No.' I asked Sternisha if I could search his vehicle for narcotics and he preferred if I did not. I advised Sternisha that I had reasonable suspicion he might have contraband in the vehicle due to the fact that he was under the influence of a central nervous system stimulant. I told Sternisha I was going to have a narcotics dog respond to my location to do an exterior search of the vehicle for contraband."

On the tape of the contact recorded by Officer Gonzalez, Officer Gonzalez is heard making reference to the upholstery of the defendant's car when attempting to get consent to search. The following is a verbatim excerpt from the tape-recorded contact:

Officer Gonzalez: Okay, so you're still under the influence. Okay. You're still showing objective symptoms. Okay. I'm just asking to be polite and to give you the respect that it is your car. Technically, I do have probable cause to- to search your car. Is that all right with you if I search your car?

Defendant: I'd rather you didn't, sir.

Officer Gonzalez: Huh?

Defendant: I'd rather you didn't.

Officer Gonzalez: Okay. Just hang tight. I'm going to wait for my partner to get here and then we'll do whatever we're going to do. You want to be honest with me, man? It can go easy. It can go real easy.

Defendant: (Inaudible)

Officer Gonzalez: I can do it the hard way. I can get a dog out here. We can tear the shit out of your- your upholstery because I know you've had- I know you've had it in here before.

A copy of the Fountain Valley Police Report (DR # 06-1782) is attached, as well as a copies of the transcripts of the preliminary hearing and the tape-recorded contact.

Sincerely,

Margaret A. Roper
Senior Deputy District Attorney
Assistant Head of Court, West Justice Center

Officer: Is that all right with you if I search your car?
Sternisha: I'd rather you didn't, sir.
O: Huh?
S: I'd rather you didn't.
O: Okay. Just hang tight. I'm going to wait for my partner to get here and then we'll do whatever we're going to do. You want to be honest with me, man? It can go easy. . . .
It can go real easy.
S: (Inaudible.)
O: I can do it the hard way. I can get a dog out here. We can tear the shit out of your – your upholstery because I know you've had – I know you've had it in here before.
S: (Inaudible.)
O: Okay. Well.
S: (Inaudible.) There might be something (inaudible).

Police report:

"I asked Sternisha if I could search his vehicle for narcotics and he preferred I did not. I advised Sternisha that I had reasonable suspicion he might have contraband in the vehicle due to the fact that he was under the influence of a central nervous stimulant. I told Sternisha I was going to have a narcotics dog respond to my location to do an exterior search of the vehicle for contraband." (p. 2)

Testimony (11/1/06)

Direct:

Joe Dane: Did he agree to the search at that point?

Officer: Initially, no.

JD: What happened next?

O: I advised him that I was going to have a narcotics dog respond and do an exterior search of the vehicle and based on his objective symptoms, I believed he was under the influence of a controlled substance and I believed he might have had narcotics in the car.
(p. 25-26 PH transcript)

Cross:

Dave Sharf: For example, do you recall making the specific threat to Mr. Sternisha to obtain his consent that you could call the dogs in and they could tear the shit out of his upholstery and you could search that way?

O: I don't recall what I said.

DS: Oh, I thought you wrote a police report; correct?

O: Yes.

DS: Did you tell the truth in that?

O: Yes.

DS: Well, didn't you put in your police report that what you said to him was, you can call the dogs and they could search the exterior of the vehicle, is that what you put in there?

O: Yes.

DS: Is that what you told him?

O: I don't recall exactly what I told him.

DS: Well, you put in your police report that you said that the dogs would search the exterior of the vehicle; right?

O: Yes.

DS: But what you actually said to him was, that the dogs would come and tear the shit out of his upholstery; isn't that true?

O: I don't remember.

(p. 43-44)

Audiotape played.

DS: Well, you said you recognized the conversation; correct?

O: Yes.
DS: Is there anything different about that than there was about the conversation that night?

O: Whatever was said on the tape, that's what I said.

...

DS: Do you see anything in the transcript that isn't correct?

O: No.

(p. 52)

DS: You told Mr. Sternisha that you would have dogs come out and tear the shit out of his upholstery; correct?

...

DS: You told him that; correct?

O: According to the tape and transcript, yes.

DS: Are the tape and transcript accurate?

O: I believe so.

DS: So, you told him that; correct?

O: Yes.

DS: You didn't put that in your police report, did you?

O: No.

DS: Why not?

O: I didn't think it was relevant.

...

DS: Let me see, you put that you would have the dogs come out and search the exterior of his car; correct?

O: Correct.

DS: Why did you put "exterior" if it wasn't relevant whether they were going to tear the upholstery up or whether they were going to sniff the exterior?

O: Because when the dogs come out to do a search of the vehicle, initially they search the exterior of the vehicle.

(p. 81-82.)

Testimony 11/2/06

DS: Okay. But when you put in something that you said, that you actually said, for example, you put in there that, "I told him that I was going to have a narcotics dog respond to my location to respond to the exterior of the vehicle to look for contraband," that's not actually what you said, is it?

DS: Let me ask this: Is that what you said to him?

O: No.

DS: When you put that in there, the events were fresh in your mind, correct?

O: Yeah.

DS: So you knew what you said to him at the time you prepared this police report; is that fair to say?

O: At that time, yes.

DS: And you decided to put in something else, something you did not say to him; is that correct?

...

O: Correct.

DS: Why would you put in there something that you didn't say to him?

O: I put in there what I was going to do.

DS: But you – what you put in your report was, I told him – "I told Sternisha, I was going to have a narcotics dog respond to my location to do an exterior search of the vehicle to look for contraband."

So what you were saying in your report is what you told him, not what you were going to do, isn't that true?

O: I told him what I was prepared to do, yes.

...

DS: You – What did you put in your report? Did you put in your report what you said to him?

O: I did not put in my report my exact words. I put in my report what I was prepared to do.

DS: Why did you do that, instead of putting in your report what you said to him?

O: I didn't feel the need to put in there exactly what was said.

FACTS ESTABLISHING ELEMENTS OF CRIME AND IDENTIFICATION OF ARRESTEE. ON 4/17/06 AT 11:00 PM, I CONTACTED SGT. MARK STERNISKA, I.D. BY PDL, ON A TRAFFIC STOP. STERNISKA WAS THE DRIVER OF THE VEHICLE AND WAS SHOWING DISTINCTIVE SYMPTOMS OF BEING UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF A STIMULANT. WHILE CONVERSING WITH STERNISKA, I ASKED HIM IF HE HAD ANYTHING ILLEGAL IN THE VEH AND HE SAID HE MIGHT HAVE SOME "SHIT." STERNISKA GAVE ME CONSENT TO SEARCH THE VEHICLE AND ITS CONTENTS. WHILE SEARCHING THE VEHICLE, I OBSERVED A BLK ROCK BORN IN THE REAR SEAT. STERNISKA ADVISED THERE MIGHT BE SOME NARCOTICS IN THE BAG AND GAVE ME CONSENT TO SEARCH IT. THE SEARCH REVEALED 3 BAGGIES OF A WHITE CRYSTALLIZED SUBSTANCE, DIGITAL SCALE, GLASS SMOOKING PIPE, TWO SMOKING CONTAINERS WITH A WHITE RESIDUE. IN STERNISKA'S WALLET, I FOUND A BQQ IN CASH AND A PAY-CHEQUE SHEET INDICATING A DEPOSIT WHICH IS DUE TO HIM. STERNISKA ALSO HAD A CELL PHONE IN HIS POSSESSION. THE SUBSTANCE

On 04-17-06, at 2251 hours, I was working uniform patrol in an unmarked police unit. I was traveling eastbound Recreation Cir. from Magnolia and turned into the parking lot of, Sports Authority, 9065 Warner. As I turned into the parking lot, I observed a vehicle, license plate #5KEJ965, parked in a stall. As I drove closer, I observed the vehicle reverse out of the parking stall and drive westbound through the parking lot. I followed the vehicle as it exited the parking lot and turned eastbound on Recreation Cir. While exiting the parking lot, the vehicle did not have its turn signal on. I observed the vehicle then turn northbound from Recreation Cir. into the parking lot of 9105 Recreation Cir. Again, the vehicle did not have its turn signal on.

I followed the vehicle into the parking lot and saw a male passenger exit the vehicle and walk quickly to another vehicle which was parked in the same lot. It appeared the male passenger was attempting to get into his vehicle and leave the area to avoid contact. After dropping off the male passenger, the primary vehicle exited the parking lot and turned westbound on Recreation Cir. Again, the vehicle did not have its turn signal on, violation of CVC 22107. I followed the vehicle and saw it had a plastic security cover over the entire license plate, a violation of CVC 5201(f)(2). I activated my emergency lights and conducted a traffic stop.

I contacted the driver, Suspect Mark STERNISHA, and asked to see his driver's license and registration. STERNISHA handed me his CDL but said his registration was not in his vehicle. As I conversed with STERNISHA, I noticed he would not make eye contact with me. I saw STERNISHA had sweat on his forehead and had rapid speech. I asked STERNISHA to look at me, and he complied. As STERNISHA turned towards me, I saw his pupils were dilated. I shined my flashlight in STERNISHA's eyes to see if his pupils would react to the light, and they did not. STERNISHA was showing objective symptoms of being under the influence of a central nervous system stimulant. I asked STERNISHA if he had been arrested before, and he said, "Yes." I asked STERNISHA when he was arrested and he said in 2002. A computer check revealed STERNISHA was arrested on 6-18-04 for being under the influence of a controlled substance. I asked STERNISHA if he was under the influence of a narcotic, and he said, "No." I advised STERNISHA he was showing objective symptoms of being under the influence, and I asked him again if he was under the influence, and he said, "Yes." I asked STERNISHA when the last time he used narcotics was, and he said approximately 12:00 in the afternoon during his lunch break. I asked STERNISHA what type of narcotic he used and he said methamphetamine.

I asked STERNISHA if he had anything illegal in his vehicle, and he said, "No." I asked STERNISHA if I could search his vehicle for narcotics and he preferred if I did not. I advised STERNISHA that I had reasonable suspicion he might have contraband in the vehicle due to the fact that he was under the influence of a central nervous system stimulant. I told STERNISHA I was going to have a narcotics dog respond to my location to do an exterior search of the vehicle for contraband. I asked STERNISHA again if he had anything illegal in his vehicle, and he said, "There might be something in my car." I asked STERNISHA if there was a pipe in his vehicle, and he said, "I might have some shit in my car." Based on my training and experience, I know the word "shit" is a commonly-used street term for methamphetamine.

I asked STERNISHA to exit the vehicle, and he complied. I asked STERNISHA where the narcotics would be in his vehicle, and he said possibly in the driver's side door panel. While searching the vehicle, I observed a black bookbag sitting on the rear seat of the vehicle. I asked STERNISHA if this bookbag belonged to him, and he said, "Yes." I asked STERNISHA if I could look inside the bag, and he said, "Yes." While searching through the bookbag, I saw a used glass smoking pipe commonly used to smoke methamphetamine and a digital scale in the front pocket of the bag. I continued to search the front pocket of the bookbag and saw a small black pouch. I opened up the small black pouch and observed three small baggies containing a white crystallized substance, a used marijuana smoking pipe, a green leafy substance thought to be marijuana, two small empty containers which had a white residue inside, a straw which is commonly used to package methamphetamine in small baggies. Based on my training and experience, these items are commonly found with individuals who distribute narcotics.

I continued to search the vehicle and saw what appeared to be STERNISHA's wallet on the dashboard of the vehicle. I asked STERNISHA if the wallet was his, and he said, "Yes." I asked STERNISHA if I could look inside the wallet, and he said, "Yes." While looking inside the wallet, I retrieved a folded piece of paper which was labeled "people owe" and $98 in cash. The folded piece of paper which was marked "people owe" was a pay-owe sheet, which indicated the amount of money which was owed to STERNISHA. Based on my training and experience, pay-owe sheets are commonly used by individuals who distribute narcotics as a record for individuals who do not pay for narcotics up front. Finally, I retrieved a cell phone from STERNISHA's vehicle.

I questioned STERNISHA about the items I had found in his bookbag. I asked STERNISHA why he had an "eight ball" (3.5 grams) of a white crystallized substance, and he said he went in with another friend to buy that amount. I asked STERNISHA why he had a digital scale in his bag, and he said he weighs his narcotics when he purchases it because he has been ripped off so many times. I asked STERNISHA why he had a piece of paper in his wallet which was labeled "people owe," and he said it was not related to this incident. I advised STERNISHA that individuals who use methamphetamine do not carry these items, and it appeared he was selling narcotics. STERNISHA said he knew I was going to say that. Based on my training and experience and the items I found in STERNISHA's vehicle and bag, I placed him under arrest for H&S 11378, possession of narcotics for sales; H&S 11379, transport narcotics for sales; H&S 11364, possession of narcotics paraphernalia; and H&S 11357(b), possession of marijuana under one ounce. STERNISHA was then transported to FVPD for questioning.

While at FVPD, I read STERNISHA his Miranda Rights, which he understood and agreed to speak with me. I asked STERNISHA what he was doing in the parking lot when I drove in, and he said he and his friend were getting ready to smoke a "bowl." I asked

STERNISHA to clarify what he meant by smoke a "bowl," and he said he was going to smoke methamphetamine. I asked STERNISHA if the methamphetamine found inside the bag was his, and he said, "Yes." STERNISHA said he and a friend of his bought the methamphetamine together. I asked STERNISHA if the methamphetamine in the bag was for personal use, and he said, "Yes." I asked STERNISHA why he had a digital scale in his bag, and he said he had been ripped off so many times that he weighs the narcotics when he purchases it. I asked STERNISHA why he had a pay-owe sheet in his wallet, and he said it was from a long time ago. STERNISHA said he has a long history of people owing him money, and he has had that list for quite some time. I advised STERNISHA that all the items found in his bag appeared as if he was selling narcotics, and he said, "Yes. I know." I asked STERNISHA if he sells narcotics, and he said, "No." STERNISHA said he carries all those items with him because he just moved to Burbank from his previous residence in Westminster. I asked STERNISHA why he did not leave all those items at home and carry just the small amount he was going to use for the day, and he said he picked up earlier and that was the reason why he had all those items. Finally, I asked STERNISHA if I could look through his phone records in his cellular phone, and he said, "Yes."

After speaking with STERNISHA, I looked through his cellular phone records and saw some text messages which indicated he is possibly selling narcotics. On 04-15-06, at approximately 1635 hours, STERNISHA sent a text message to an individual named "Jessica." The text message read, "Will you do me a favor and welcome Jamie and prepare .5 for her for 40 Thanks. Be back in a minute. Also, a .8 for Omar, who is here on the corner. Then need to pick up again." On 04-15-06, at approximately 1504 hours, STERNISHA sent a text message to another person at (714) 261-7822. The text message read, "No prob. Going to pick up money." After reading the text messages in STERNISHA's phone, I questioned him about what I had read. I advised STERNISHA about the text message I read regarding this person named "Jessica" doing him a favor and preparing what appeared to be .5 grams and .8 grams for people named "Jamie" and "Omar." I advised STERNISHA the text message indicates he may possibly be dealing narcotics. I asked STERNISHA if he was dealing narcotics, and he said, "Not really." STERNISHA said he might have been hooking them up that day. I asked STERNISHA if he sells drugs to individuals on occasion, and he said, "Yes." I asked STERNISHA if it was safe to say that he sometimes sells drugs and he sometimes does not sell drugs, and he said, "Yes."

After questioning STERNISHA, he was transported to Orange County Jail and booked for H&S 11378; possession of narcotics for sales; H&S 11379, transport narcotics for sales; H&S 11364, possession of narcotics paraphernalia; and H&S 11357(b), possession of marijuana under one ounce.

The white crystallized substance confiscated valtox tested positive for methamphetamine and weighed approx 3.1 grams, gross weight. I requested the white crystallized substance be sent to OCSD for testing. The marijuana weighed approx .2 grams, net weight. All items were booked into FVPD property as evidence.

OFFICER GONZALEZ DR #06-1782

OFCR. GONZALEZ: 4/17/06, 2245 hours. How you doing, sir?

MR. STERNISHA: Good. You?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Good. Can I see your registration, please, and driver's license? What are you guys doing in that parking lot over there?

MR. STERNISHA: I was just talking to him.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: I was – I was driving around looking for him, and he was walked over there when I picked him up. I didn't see his car parked over there.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. The reason why I stopped you, several things: You're not using your turn signal when you're turning, okay, and you – that license plate cover on your license plate there is illegal.

MR. STERNISHA: Illegal. What do you mean it's illegal?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Can't – it's illegal. You can't have it on there.

MR. STERNISHA: Okay.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You ever been arrested before?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah, a long time ago.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: For what?

MR. STERNISHA: It was for possession.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Possession of what?

MR. STERNISHA: I believe it was (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You believe it was methamphetamine or it was methamphetamine?

MR. STERNISHA: It was, (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: I need to see your registration.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible) because my car – I just got my car back from being stolen.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Uh-huh.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. When was the last time you were arrested?

MR. STERNISHA: I think it was 2002, something like that.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. You still living on, ah, on Park Balboa?

MR. STERNISHA: No, that's wrong.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Where you living at now?

MR. STERNISHA: I live in Burbank.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You're living at Burbank?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah, my parents live in Westminster.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Why you sweating?

MR. STERNISHA: It's hot right here.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: It's hot and you made me nervous pull me over.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: I'm making you nervous?

MR. STERNISHA: You did.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: So look at me real quick? When was the last time you used?

MR. STERNISHA: Uh --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Look at me.

MR. STERNISHA: October 7.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You're high right now, dude.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Eyes don't lie. Do you want to be honest with me or am I going to have to do this the hard way?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You're sweating. Your eyes are big, okay.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: It's not my first night, bro.

MR. STERNISHA: I know. I'm not --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay, so make this easy on yourself. You used earlier today. What time?

MR. STERNISHA: Oh, like, like to my lunch break so three o'clock (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: 101, Code 1. At your lunch break? (Inaudible).

(Radio traffic.)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Is there anything illegal in the car I need to know about?

MR. STERNISHA: No.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Pipes, meth?

MR. STERNISHA: I don't think so.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You don't think so, yes, no? No? 101, clear for one.

DISPATCHER: 101.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: CDL Bravo, seven, zero, one, five, five, nine, six, last of Sternisha. Where'd you use at?

MR. STERNISHA: It was over in Garden Grove area.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: In Garden Grove?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. At a buddy's house, out in your car? You said you did it on your lunch break, right?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah. It was at a buddy's house right down the street.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: It was at a buddy's house right by my work.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Where do you work at?

MR. STERNISHA: Citinet Financial.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Say that again.

MR. STERNISHA: Citinet Financial.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. How long you been doing that?

MR. STERNISHA: I just started there. It's my second (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Your second what?

MR. STERNISHA: Second week.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Who's that guy that was in the car with you?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Were you guys gonna to get high?

MR. STERNISHA: No.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Come on. Be honest.

MR. STERNISHA: No, we weren't.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You're already being honest about getting high earlier today.

MR. STERNISHA: Oh, I know. I – trust me, we weren't. I don't want people to know that I get high. Come on.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay.

MR. STERNISHA: It's an old friend so.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: When were you driving around looking for him?

MR. STERNISHA: Right now, like right before you got here and I saw him walking over there in the parking lot.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Bullshit. I saw you drive over there. I saw you parked over there. As soon as I pulled right behind you, you took off, came back around, got in the parked

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: – hold on. Listen. You went into the skating rink park and you dropped him off.

MR. STERNISHA: Right. I looked over there first for him. I didn't see him in there, and then I saw him across the street so I drove over there – (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. So how long were you sitting over there for, you and him?

MR. STERNISHA: Like maybe a few minutes, something like that.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: And you guys were just talking?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: What were you supposed to meet him for?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible) in the area. I was right close by at another friend's house and (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You just wanted to what?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Wanted to hang out?

MR. STERNISHA: Because I don't ever kick it with him anymore, you know?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. So you just want to hang out in the parking lot? I mean, that – that doesn't sound very --

MR. STERNISHA: He was at Tommy's Burgers.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay.

MR. STERNISHA: And so I was right down the street in the area at a friend's house so he called me on my cell phone, and I came over here and just talked to him.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: What'd you guys talk about?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible) old times, you know, nothing in particular.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: In those two minutes that you guys had together, you guys talked about all that?

MR. STERNISHA: It was only a couple things, nothing real important.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Nothing important? Whose car is this?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: Mine.

DISPATCH: 101

OFCR. GONZALEZ: 101.

DISPATCHER: 101, (inaudible) last of Sternisha, valid out of Westminster, shows extensive H&S OCLARS, date of last was for 11550 6 of '04, has no wants.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: 10-4.
You've been arrested for under the influence before, huh?

MR. STERNISHA: Yes.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Why'd your buddy take off so quickly as soon as I pulled right behind you?

MR. STERNISHA: I don't know.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: I mean, he – he – he jammed the hell out of here.

MR. STERNISHA: That kind of freaked me out actually. I don't know why --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: He wanted nothing to do with whatever I was going to do with you. So I'm wondering what exactly you guys were doing in here.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible) just talking (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: Nothing in particular (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Nothing in particular? Okay. There's nothing illegal in your car?

MR. STERNISHA: No.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You mind if I take a look?

MR. STERNISHA: Well, yeah, (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: Kind of. I mean, I don't feel that there's a reason that we need to. I mean, I – you know, I can --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Well, you being under the influence gives me probable cause.

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah, but I know (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: I don't care. You're still high. It's only been, what, nine, ten hours? It's going to be – that stuff is in your system for three days.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. So you're still under the influence. Okay. You're still showing objective symptoms. Okay. I'm just asking to be polite and to give you the respect that it is your car. Technically I do have probable cause to – to search your car. Is that all right with you if I search your car?

MR. STERNISHA: I – I'd rather you didn't, sir.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: I'd rather you didn't.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Just hang tight. I'm going to wait for my partner to get here and then we'll do whatever we're going to do. You want to be honest with me, man? It can go easy.

Walker: 110 10-97.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: It can go real easy.

Dispatch: 97

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: I can do it the hard way. I can get a dog out here. We can tear the shit out of your – your upholstery because I know you've had – I know you've had it in here before.

MR. STERNISHA: (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Well.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible). There might be something (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: There might be something in there. Like what, a pipe?

MR. STERNISHA: There's probably (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Some shit. There might be some shit in here?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah, there might be.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Why don't you do me a favor, step out of the car for me. Just leave your keys right there. Turn around. You got anything on you I need to know about?

MR. STERNISHA: No.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay.

MR. STERNISHA: You're going to go easy, right (inaudible)?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: You're going to go easy on me I'm honest with (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: I'm going to go easy on you. Put your hands back here. I appreciate you being honest, man. Tell you the truth, bro --

MR. STERNISHA: Because I just --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Listen, listen, listen. To be honest with you, just looking at you I can tell you were lying from the beginning. Okay. You're just – you're not a good liar. You're high, so your thinking process is not going too well right now.

MR. STERNISHA: I know.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. The smoother you – the smoother things go, the easier they're going to be for you.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Whatever we find in here, we'll deal with it when I find it. Okay? Just because I find something in here doesn't mean you're automatically going to jail. There's ways around it. Okay? So just – just go with the program the way you are. Appreciate your honesty, and then things will go smoother. Sound good?

MR. STERNISHA: Yep.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: All right. Spread your feet. There's another guy here who took off as soon as I got – pulled him.

OFC. WALKER: In here?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: They were together over there.

OFC. WALKER: Oh, really.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: He dropped him off in the skating rink parking lot and the other guy got in the car and he, ba, I mean, he – he wanted nothing to do with this. There's nothing on you that's going to hurt me, poke me?

MR. STERNISHA: No.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. You don't mind if I take a look in your pockets?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: He's 550.

OFC. WALKER: Whose car is that?

MR. STERNISHA: Mine.

OFC. WALKER: (Inaudible).

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFC. WALKER: (Inaudible).

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFC. WALKER: Oh. (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: All right.

OFC. WALKER: Where's – who's the other guy that you were talking to?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFC. WALKER: He live around here?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah, he lives (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Have a seat. Turn around. Have a seat on the curb. Spread your feet out, cross them. Hands on your lap. Where would your stuff be if it's in there? Center console?

MR. STERNISHA: No, I think it's – it might be in my door maybe.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: In your door, like the door panel right here?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah, I think.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Just so you also know I can take a look in your car without – even if you didn't want me to do it, I can still look in your car because you don't have your registration; and by law I can look in your car just for that registration alone. Okay? But I appreciate your cooperation here. There's nothing in that car that's going to poke me? I'm not going to stick my hands under the seat and a needle is going to poke me or anything like that, right?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Just hang tight. I'll be right back. All right, man, it's not in your door. Where else – where else would you keep it?

OFC. WALKER: In that bag back there maybe.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Yeah, I haven't checked it yet. Is that your bag back there?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: All right.

MR. STERNISHA: It could be in the bag.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: All right. Whose little – is that a CD case or is that a chick's purse?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: That's yours, right?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFC. WALKER: Where's the girl at?

MR. STERNISHA: She's at (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Where was the stuff that was in here?

MR. STERNISHA: What?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Did – did you have some shit in there?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFC. WALKER: What happed the last time you were arrested?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFC. WALKER: That was it?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Whose CDs are these?

MR. STERNISHA: What's that?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Whose CDs are these?

MR. STERNISHA: The ones with (inaudible)?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Yeah.

MR. STERNISHA: They are a friend of mine's.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: What's your friend's name?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: How do you know her?

MR. STERNISHA: I think I met her – I might have met her (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: What was that?

MR. STERNISHA: I might have met her a long time ago when I (Inaudible) to be picking up (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Where does she live? I'm assuming it's a she.

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah, yeah (inaudible).

OFC. WALKER: (Inaudible) right here?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: He was parked over there in the Sportmart lot.

OFC. WALKER: Do you want to go check the parking lot when you get (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: (Inaudible) in a minute, yeah. He said he's got some in here.

OFC. WALKER: 3.3 (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: 3.5 (inaudible).

OFC. WALKER: Hold on.

UNKNOWN: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

OFC. WALKER: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Is this your pipe?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

UNKNOWN: Is there anything else in there?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Why do you have a little -- finger condoms in there?

MR. STERNISHA: Oh, cause somebody gave them to me they wanted (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: What?

MR. STERNISHA: They wanted – somebody wanted to put shit in it and I was like I didn't want to keep it so.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Where do you get your dope from?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: A friend of mine.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: A friend of yours? In Huntington, Westminster?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: The guy's place where you got --

MR. STERNISHA: What?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: The guy's place where you got high earlier today?

MR. STERNISHA: No (Inaudible)

OFC. WALKER: When did you use last, earlier?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: They're blown out.

OFC. WALKER: (Inaudible)

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: What do you go to the University of Phoenix for? What are you studying there?

MR. STERNISHA: Well, I went to school there for a while. Then I – I also worked there.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Oh, did you?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: How long you been smoking dope?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: How old are you now?

MR. STERNISHA: I'm 26. (Inaudible). I don't know, four years, something like that maybe.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Is it a habit? Do you like doing it or what?

MR. STERNISHA: Honestly, it's like (inaudible) like I hate it. It brings back (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Today was the first time you've done it in a long time?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Why do you got an eight ball worth here?

MR. STERNISHA: I don't know. Because I knew that that would get somebody's attention in order to get it.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: What?

MR. STERNISHA: Like I – the more money you have, the easier it's going to be to get.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. But if today is the first time you've used in a long time, why would you have an eight ball with you?

MR. STERNISHA: Well, actually it was part – somebody else put in money with me, so.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Come on, dude, when are you going to be honest? When are you – how long you been dealing?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible) what?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Dealing.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible) deals.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You don't deal?

MR. STERNISHA: No.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: All the signs are pointing to dealing.

MR. STERNISHA: I kind of figured you were going to say that.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: I kind of figured you were going to say that.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Well, most people don't have scales an eight ball.

MR. STERNISHA: Well, I've been ripped off so many times, I don't know how else to do it.

OFC. WALKER: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: And this pay owe – and this pay owe sheet doesn't help you either.

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah, that (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: People owe.

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah, that's not from --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Touraf 30, Eric 90. Mike B., 30; Jan, 370. Well, that's a pay owe sheet. You know what a pay owe sheet is?

MR. STERNISHA: Pay out or pay --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Pay owe sheet. That means what people owe and what people have paid.

MR. STERNISHA: Right.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Dealers usually carry records like that. That's their way of keeping tabs on their people. That way they don't get – that – that way they don't get suckered out of their money. Here's your registration by the way.

MR. STERNISHA: Okay. (Inaudible) find it.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Yep.

OFC. WALKER: (Inaudible). Here's Jim, blow job. What's that? Just kidding.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Plus bowl, 90 plus a bowl.

OFC. WALKER: Shit, 50 plus 55 shit. Oh, wait, shit -- oh, shit equals methamphetamine.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Yeah, you said you had shit earlier.

OFC. WALKER: That's a, that's a street term for methamphetamine. (Inaudible), man, (inaudible).

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Hey, you know what, you've been – you've been – you've been cooperative up to this point. We're not – we're not going to treat you cheap, man, but you got to realize, it's like you said earlier, we're – it's not our first day. Do me a favor, put your hands behind your back. Is that too tight?

MR. STERNISHA: No, that's fine.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: That's fine.

OFC. WALKER: Uh huh.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: All right. Hold on. Here's the deal, bro, is there anything else on you that I need to know about? Okay. Because if you take stuff into my jail and then Orange County Jail and I don't find it, that's another mandatory three years I think it is—

UNKNOWN: (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: --federal, no, no, no, you been honest about that shit, you know. That's why I'm giving you the – the courtesy to make sure to tell me the truth now. Okay. Seriously, I don't want to – I don't like to see people get the mandatory three years federal – federal prison time because they take shit into – into jails.

MR. STERNISHA: There's nothing else on me.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Stand on up. Let's go over here.

MR. STERNISHA: Is there any way we can leave my car here instead of towing it or --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: No.

MR. STERNISHA: Can we like put it in the parking lot of something?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: It's parked in the red. Just lean – lean over the car like a – here's the deal, man, like I said earlier, it goes a lot easier when you – when you're honest and I'm going to keep my end of the bargain. When we get to the Station, you want to work this off? You know, we're not after people carrying this much. You're just a small time dealer. We want to go after people who are – who are distributing this shit and making it. So sit in your – sit in my car, think about it. If you want to help yourself out, believe me, it will help you out – help yourself out greatly if you help us out, all right? I'll let you – let you think about it and then when we get to the Station, we'll talk more about it. Sound good?

MR. STERNISHA: All right.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: All right, man.

UNKNOWN: Are you going to park his car or you're going to tow it?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You know what, I'm probably going to park it. He's been cool with me. Hold on, hold on.

UNKNOWN: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

OFC. WALKER: (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Yeah.

OFC. WALKER: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: (Inaudible). 101, 10-15.

DISPATCHER: 101, copy.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: What's that? No.

OFC. WALKER: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: No, I'm going to – you know what, when we're done here, I'm going to need you to park it right there in that parking lot.

OFC. WALKER: (Inaudible). You got the pay owe sheet right there.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Pay owe sheet, cash, scales.

UNKNOWN: Beautiful. Holy shit nice bust.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You know what, that guy was deal – buying from –

(TAPE TURNS OFF)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Why don't you just go ahead and talk about what – what went on out there. Sound good?

MR. STERNISHA: Yep.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You have the right to remain silent. Anything you say may be used against you in court. You have the right to the presence of an attorney before and during any questioning. If you cannot afford an attorney, one will be appointed for you free of charge before any questioning if you want. Do you understand your rights?

MR. STERNISHA: Yes.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. With these rights in mind, do you want to talk to me about what went on out there?

MR. STERNISHA: Sure.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: Sure.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: What were you guys – when I first pulled up into that parking lot, you were – there was another person in the car, right?

MR. STERNISHA: Yes.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Who was that, a buddy of yours?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah, a friend of mine.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. What was he doing in there?

MR. STERNISHA: We were actually – we were about to smoke a bowl (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: A bowl of weed or --

MR. STERNISHA: No, it was meth.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Meth, okay.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: What was that?

MR. STERNISHA: He was all drunk I think.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: He was?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah. (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Did he call you and you met him there or --

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible) right down the street at another friend's house and (inaudible) right there by Tommy's Burgers.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. And so you guys were just going to --

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Were ya? Did you -- you guys get a chance to smoke?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: No?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: As soon as I pulled up, you guys -- did you even get to load it?

MR. STERNISHA: What's that?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Did you even get to load your bowl?

MR. STERNISHA: We put some in there.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Did you?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Is there any reason why you didn't use your turn signal when you were coming out of the parking lot or when you turned into the other parking lot?

MR. STERNISHA: No.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: No?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Just kind of nervous or just forgot or --

MR. STERNISHA: I don't. I don't do, do that (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Yeah. Did you know it was illegal to have that license plate cover on your car, on your -- over --

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: It's not -- it's not illegal to have it around the license plate number, but the number itself can't be covered.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Did you know that? No. Okay. A lot of people don't. You said out there that you smoked meth earlier in the day around, what, 12:00?

MR. STERNISHA: No, it was like -- more like 3:00.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: 3:00. When I was talking to you out there, did you still -- were you still feeling high?

MR. STERNISHA: Yes.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Yeah? Yeah, because you were sweating, your eyes were --

MR. STERNISHA: No, it's not --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Your eyes were pretty big.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible) high (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: But you still felt it; you still felt the effects?

MR. STERNISHA: Yes.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Yeah. Because, I mean, just from my observations, like I said, you were showing objective symptoms, you know, you're sweating; your eyes were what we call blown out, they were really big. You were kind of fidgety, you know, and so. What about the stuff in your, the bag?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Is that your stuff?

MR. STERNISHA: Yes.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: All that meth in there?

MR. STERNISHA: Yes – well, it was being (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Is that personal use?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. What's with the pay – what's with the scale?

MR. STERNISHA: Okay. I just, I've been screwed over so many fricken times that – I figured the only way to get what I paid for was to buy a scale.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay.

MR. STERNISHA: So.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: So do you carry your scale when you go in and buy your stuff?

MR. STERNISHA: The majority of the time, yeah, or I leave it in the car (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: And you – so you weigh your stuff in front of the person you're actually buying from?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: That's unusual. I never have people usually doing that. Usually the dealer gets pissed if you do something like that.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You said out there you've been using since you were 20. You're 26 now, so that's roughly six years.

MR. STERNISHA: Right.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You can't tell what a gram looks like just by looking at it?

MR. STERNISHA: Oh, I can – I can have some idea. I just don't – if they're still going to touch it, I don't want (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: How much is a gram going nowadays?

MR. STERNISHA: I think like 60 bucks at least.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Sixty?

MR. STERNISHA: Um-hum.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: All right. And you and another buddy bought all – bought those three grams?

MR. STERNISHA: Um-hum.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: That eight ball, basically a little less than an eight ball.

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: What was with the pay owe sheet?

MR. STERNISHA: That's from – that's from a long time – I used to have a (inaudible). And that's (inaudible), I had my car stolen. I had my (inaudible) stolen (inaudible) money.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Yeah.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible). I don't know. I just wanted to keep some record of all the --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Do you – do you understand that all that stuff looks like you're selling and dealing?

MR. STERNISHA: Oh, yeah, I know.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: I mean, everything in your, in that little pouch that was inside your – your little book bag, everything in there is consistent with what – with what, you know, people who sell drugs. All that stuff is consistent with --

MR. STERNISHA: That's why I keep it all in one pouch so like if I, if I go somewhere I just put that all somewhere, you know, so nobody else gets it. So it's better in one place than all over in your car, right?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Yeah, I guess so. But, you know, I tend to believe that you might be selling on the side, you know. I'm not saying you're big time, but, you know, I tend to believe that you're selling and whether or not you were doing that today, that's beyond – that's beside the point because I can't prove that.

MR. STERNISHA: Okay.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: But what I can prove in court is that everything that was in your bag points to you selling drugs. You know what I mean? And, you know, like I said, you might not be a big time dealer. You're not – you're not moving like pounds or, you know, stuff like that, but, you know, selling here and there and, you know, just to, you know, make your mon – make some money or to, you know, support your habit. You know, people do that all the time. And people who normally have stuff for their personal use don't carry – they don't carry an eight ball. They don't carry scales. They don't carry little finger condoms, you know, so they don't get the stuff on there. They don't carry, you know --

MR. STERNISHA: Right.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: -- little containers that they package their stuff with, you know, that carry, you know, those little containers. You know what I mean? They don't have pay owe sheets.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible) carry all that around all the time except for I just moved to Burbank, so it's like --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay, I understand that, but like I said, it's not going to be hard for me to prove in court that that's what you're doing on the side.

MR. STERNISHA: Well, I just – I can tell you that I'm not and I can tell you honestly that I've tried before, and I didn't make anything.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You tried? When was the last time you tried?

MR. STERNISHA: Oh, it was right before I (inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Right before you what?

MR. STERNISHA: Went into (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Which was?

MR. STERNISHA: 2002, somewhere around there.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: 2002?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah. And I just --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: So you're saying you're not dealing at all now?

MR. STERNISHA: No, no.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: So all that stuff --

MR. STERNISHA: All that stuff was my personal use, yeah.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: It's all just coincidence?

MR. STERNISHA: Um-hum. Well, I mean, all that stuff I use personally.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You use, you can use an eight ball?

MR. STERNISHA: Over time, yeah.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: How, how long?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible) at least a week.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: How long ago did you move to Burbank?

MR. STERNISHA: Like a month ago.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: A month ago?

MR. STERNISHA: Two months.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Why would you care – leave all that stuff at home?

MR. STERNISHA: Because --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Carry – you can carry just a – you know, most people carry just what they're going to use that night.

MR. STERNISHA: Right, well --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: A gram at the most.

MR. STERNISHA: I happened to pick up, right, today so.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Where did you pick up at?

MR. STERNISHA: Like I said, me and a buddy went in with – on shit and I was at a friend's house and the guy happened to stop by and I just jumped on it.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Hmm.

MR. STERNISHA: So. Yeah, normally I wouldn't carry that much.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Normally you wouldn't carry that much?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible)

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Like I said, all this is pointing to you distributing it and selling it. Okay. That's why we're here talking about it and, you know, two sides to every story and that's what's going to go in the report, but just things aren't looking correct. You know what I mean? They don't look like what you're saying they are. And that's why when I talked to you out there, you know, if you're, if you're honest, things go a lot easier. Okay.

MR. STERNISHA: Right.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: I think I've been fair up to this point. I have treated you with respect. I haven't treated you like an asshole or treated you cheap or anything like that.

MR. STERNISHA: Uh, huh.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: And I will continue to do that as long as you continue to tell me the truth.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. I think you're a small-time dealer. Okay.

MR. STERNISHA: Okay.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: All the evidence is pointing towards that. Okay. Whether or not you want to admit it, that's – that's up to you. Okay. Alls I can do is testify about my training, what I've experienced in law enforcement and what, you know, all that stuff means when somebody is carrying. Okay. But like I said, it helps you out. It help you out in court because it'll go – you know, all this goes in the report.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: All this is going to go in the report. It's going to make you look good. It's going to make – you know, it's going to show that you know what, you made – you made some dumb mistakes. This is one of them, and you're not sitting there – you're not trying to deny something that – you know what I mean? It just – it just looks better for you.

MR. STERNISHA: Right.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: So --

MR. STERNISHA: Well, I – I – I don't deal. I can't.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You don't deal?

MR. STERNISHA: I tried it before and, yeah, you have a few bucks in your pocket, but in the long run, you get nothing out of it. That's what I always hated.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: How old is that pay owe sheet that you have in your --

MR. STERNISHA: That's probably a good -- actually -- probably back in 2002.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Yeah. Earlier out there when I asked you if you had anything illegal in your car, you said, "Yeah, I probably have some shit in the car." And I know that "shit," you know, on the street means some sort of narcotics, usually methamphetamine is what it's referred to.

MR. STERNISHA: Um-hum.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: On your pay owe sheet, you have some -- some --

MR. STERNISHA: Things I (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: -- some things in there about shit, you know, so that also point -- you know what I'm saying? These are all things that are pointing in that direction.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: So, you know, if you want to continue to deny it, that's fine. When I talked to you out there, I said, you know, that, you know, maybe there's a way you can help me out and help yourself out to save time, like I said, I think you're a small time dealer. No big deal. Hey, you got a habit too. A lot of people deal small time. They do it for -- for their own habit.

MR. STERNISHA: Um-hum.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: I think that's what you're kind of doing right now. Do you -- are you willing to help us go for the bigger fish, you know, which will help you out in the long run?

MR. STERNISHA: If it, if it depends on what -- what is in it for me, like what --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Well, basically what happens is we're going to have one of our nar -- our Narcotics Officers come down, our Detective Officers, come down. They're going to talk to you. You can tell them what -- what you can get and stuff like that.

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: We're not saying that you're going to be un-arrested, but when it – when all this comes to court, the Narcotics Officer writes a letter of recommendation to the D.A. saying that you helped us out, that, you know, that – basically it's almost like you're working off your – your sentence.

MR. STERNISHA: Right.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: So to speak. You know what I mean? I'm not saying, you know, I'm not going to promise you that you're not going to go to jail today because you are. But when things, you know, finally go to court and everything, you know, is done and said, you know, that letter of recommendation can be, you know, the difference between you serving time and the difference between you getting probation and maybe some more drug court. So I, I personally think that's a pretty good --

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible) some type of written guarantee that – or whatever – whatever is going to be for me like on this.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: I would need something like written guarantee saying that this is going to have a --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Well, like I said, I can't promise you anything because I'm not the one that actually do it.

MR. STERNISHA: Right.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Do you want me to call one of our Narcotics Officers down here; he can talk to you, tell you what he can, what he can't do?

MR. STERNISHA: (Inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: They're the ones – this – basically right now my contact with you, that's what I handle. That's the only part I handle. After the Narcotics Officer comes and talks to you, I'm involved in it, but he handles that part.

MR. STERNISHA: Sure

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You know what I mean? And they can give you more specifics on what they can, what they can't do. My experience is that, like I said, normally you're not going to – you know, we're not going to just say, "Okay, you can go home," but like I said, what happens is usually a letter of recommendation is, you know, written to the D.A., stuff like that, and, you know, but if you want more information, I can get – like I said, I can call a Narcotics Officer. We can come down. We'll talk – you know, we'll go upstairs. He can talk to you, tell you how the whole thing works and then you can – because I know you know --

MR. STERNISHA: No, I know --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: I know you know some information that can help us out and help you out in the long run, but --

MR. STERNISHA: It's just if people find out, I'm not going to be around.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: I understand that. I understand that, but you know what, for the most part, things are, you know, we won't, we don't -- we don't lay people out so they get hurt and just so we can, you know, get some dope.

MR. STERNISHA: I just want to make sure that it's going to be worth my time.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Right.

MR. STERNISHA: That's all.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Do you want me to go ahead and call that Officer and have him come down?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah. If you think you can help me out.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You want to do that?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. Just give me some time. I got to go upstairs, get -- give him a call. I'll put you back in a cell.

MR. STERNISHA: Okay.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: And then hopefully we can -- you know, get him down here as soon as possible, you know, talk to you and see what we can do for you.

MR. STERNISHA: Okay.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Sound good?

MR. STERNISHA: Yep.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: All right, man.

MR. STERNISHA: You think I can make a phone call?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Huh?

MR. STERNISHA: Do you think I can make a phone call?

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Depending on how soon or long the Officer --

MR. STERNISHA: Okay.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: If it's going to take him more than an hour or two, I'll just go ahead and give your calls then.

MR. STERNISHA: Okay. I mean, even you can call them and just tell them that I'm okay (inaudible).

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Who do you want to call, your mom or what?

MR. STERNISHA: No, it's where I'm staying in Burbank.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Okay. The only reason why is because I don't want -- if you're going to help us out --

MR. STERNISHA: That's fine. I understand.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: You know what I mean? I don't want to burn anything that --

MR. STERNISHA: That's fine.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: For one, it's going to make you look bad. Mainly that, you know, that -- so they don't look to you as --

MR. STERNISHA: Right.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: -- being a rat or whatever. You know what I mean? That's not, I mean that's not --

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah, I don't want --

OFCR. GONZALEZ: Our whole thing is we don't want -- if we can keep you out of, you know, the loop so to speak, and make, you know, so things aren't pointed towards you, that's -- that's the ideal thing. You know what I mean?

MR. STERNISHA: Yeah, perfect.

OFCR. GONZALEZ: So, all right, let's put you back in a cell and then I'll come back and tell you what's going on.
